A Keepsake

We always recommend that you use the eulogy we write in a creative and meaningful way. In addition to reading it at the service, have it printed in an attractive folder for distribution to funeral or memorial guests. They will treasure it. Your funeral director may be able to design the folder if you are unable to do it yourself and to tell you where to have it printed.

There is no better way to honor your loved one than to present a great eulogy telling of their life and their passions and their love.
